1. pull it up just just the right amount of butt cheek this butt is sponsored by Orange Theory magical very French cut this suit is maybe a [Music] 10 Hello friends welcome back to my channel and welcome to I honestly can't believe it actually I feel like I should just bring these two in right now ladies please come join the party look who is joining me here on my Channel today it's my mom Judy hi my sister Ally hi and we are back for the fourth year in a row by popular demand we are doing our annual multi-size multi- decade
as far as age goes swimsuit haul are you ladies as excited as I obviously am I can't contain my excitement okay here's why I love doing these videos I love being able to Showcase what a swimsuit or what an outfit looks like not only on different sizes but also people who are different ages we have Ally who is currently for the next like 1 month representing the 30s I'm representing the 40s and my mom this hot Patti 65 yeah now Mom last year you made a really great note in our video how one gets a swimsuit body how do we do that just as a reminder I don't remember what Mom it's iconic Ally do you remember I do of course and it is have a body and you put on a swimsuit oh oh I guess so so today we're going to be trying on three different swimsuits each of us have actually picked out a suit for all of us to try on and it's currently a mystery but what we do know is that all of these suits are from one of our favorite Brands cupi you guys have probably seen their website they're also huge on Amazon and the thing we love about them is that there's a lot of sizing super affordable and I'm personally so excited because one of my favorite people on the internet and Beyond is scra you guys know her she is a great friend of mine I love her so much and she has done the most stunning fun cute collab with zero Photoshop by the way with cupy and so we're only going to be trying on hers I feel like we should like send her a text or something yeah hello hi iscra okay look at this so cute love her so much so without further Ado who wants to go first I'll go first mom wants to go first age age before Beauty guys if I'm walking down the street with these two nobody's looking at oh shut the front door I actually remember her bonon also one more quick thing to point out I'm going to be repping for size small and extra small Ally medium and Mommy large so you guys can get an idea of what these sizes are like based on what we are trying on mom you're going first go get your bag okay so Mom you have your bag right here Ali just asked is it a swim skirt we just have to wait and see okay but wait I missed out on one very important detail before we start trying on the swimsuits as for the usual I have a discount code for you all so you can use my code jlin 15 to get 15% off orders $65 or more or you can use the code cupy fan 20 to get 20% off orders $109 and more I'm going to put all of this in the description just so it's super super clear but I had to mention that so when you're watching you can just like start adding stuff to cart anyways back to the video oh my gosh this is a really cute suit mom you did a great job it's almost got like I don't know if you can see on the material got a Sheen or a shimmer to it yeah I like the fabric is really nice and I like that it had the little bit of a gathering right here kind ofing camouflage my area well it's just very flattering regardless I I feel like it just kind of like accentuates your waist which you have a snatched waist oh I do so when you're snatched show it off but here's what the three of us have been discussing since the moment from once we entered the backyard do you see how my mom and I are wearing this this cool asymmetrical cutie and then see what my sister did genius I'm jealous of your strap placement really cute both ways like are adjustable which is really nice it has almost this like little toggle situation which is hored is the right way of describing it but I actually really like the way you're wearing it and this just gives you options and I'm very into the whole asymmetrical thing of late she likes balance a symmetric I like balance a symmetric is that a thing I don't think that's a thing I don't know well like in maybe not in clothing but in decorating like pictures on the wall right like two over here and then one here but back to the swimsuit you actually picked this out and said it's under $20 yeah I toally believe that material nice fa kind of almost has like a dressy swimsuit Vegas vibe to it but like sexy mature Vegas which is like the kind of Vegas I want to go to like I would wear this for dinner and a show not to the club see Tom to see Tom Tom Jones if you're listening Tom Jones who's Tom Jones but the other thing I want to say that I love about one piece swimsuit I would wear this as a shirt as a bodysuit with a pair of jeans or Jean short you picked out really cute suit for us well done well done my lady mom you go first one to five what are you giving this camouflages even my hips my mom had a hip replacement surgery this is her first summer going full speed with her new hip and she is here to party here to really show off that scar right here I'm proud of it I'm bionic now give us a little spin would you so what are you giving them I'm going to give it a four just because I don't always wear one pieces as far as one piece goes five you are kind of Trapped in it the way you have it on because this is going to maybe strangle you hard but I do like that you pull side legs a little bit to really like I feel like it just cuts me better than like I don't like that on me I just like pull it up pull it up a just a little bit not a pull it up a little I'm going to give this also a 4.5 only because I wish there was an extra small it's a little looser than I would like but then also for chips and it gives me a lot of space for the nachos or a snackle box but honestly ly I think I'm just being like overly critical cuz I don't want to low it all on the first suit I'm obsessed with this Pupi iscra well done but it's time to move on to our next suit and Ally I think you should go grab your [Music] bag let's go get changed you guys how cute is this suit Al like get over here okay also full disclosure this is our first time filming poolside which I'm now thinking it's probably kind of a regrettable decision because everyone in this neighborhood is getting thank you everyone is getting their lawn done today and it's really really messing with my audio while we have time Ally I love it this suit is so cute so talk to me about why you picked this I love the little hole the little cutout right here and I love the color tie-dye situation and I didn't know very frch cut which you love apparently so look here on the side you can see right here I actually don't think I've ever seen a suit like this that just goes up in a v on the side also look at the back adjustable mom is showing off isra's cover up really cute cuz the world is not ready for me in in this no they're not you're too hot that ship sailed no Mom Mom you can wear a two-piece even from the comfort of your own home so that you can get your crop top area tan or you could just go topless this is your house the other thing I want to point out is that all of the suits were trying h on are fully lined and also have cuffs but like Ally said look at just all the little added details this rouched fabric style is really great and I don't really have a large chest but mom as someone who is blessed in that area bazingas do you feel supported yes for sure a little snarey for me little underbob underbob oh my gosh what does underbob mean I don't know Isom well don't look at me if you want to know what underbob is cuz I don't have any my review is that it's really cute but probably not exactly something I would wear four I'm going to say that this suit love the fact that it also came in an extra small because I feel like swimsuits lose their elasticity over time and this one is so toy on my body just the right amount of butt cheek showing it's not like it's super cute too much cheap so I'm giving this a five while Ally gives us her review I'm going to put on my cover up because it's so cute I love this bathing suit Pupi isra this is so cute and I could wear this little cover up with like a slip dress underneath did I say I give it a five fives all day sizing is impeccable it's time for our final suit and I've actually remixed it a bit instead of all of us wearing the exact same suit I thought it would be more fun to see a wide variety of what this collaboration has to offer so all of us are getting a black suit of my choosing and I think we're all going to look straight fire just like Pooky do you guys know who Pooky is no I was do oh my gosh we have so much to discuss oh my gosh okay maybe I should have been a Fashion Stylist because I feel like all three of us are showing off such different suits different Vibes we're going different places but we all look so good and I say that I say that confidently but humbly but like also like it just it just is what it is my mom came out here how are you feeling magical kind of like a movie star possibly I love it and it has the tummy control which wait hold on do you hear that the police are coming I can hear the sirens they're coming to arrest you for being too hot well sorry I'll have to hide real quick but I really like it a symmetrical little moment here and the tummy control and it's not so snarfy down in this area Ally talk to me about this three-piece hotness I mean it's so cute this is like very classy but sexy here's the bottom splattering very nice and then there's this cute little like wrap situation really cute it's like a nude underneath and then like a eyelet kind of overlay this butt is sponsored by Orange Theory it looks amazing and I wanted you to turn around too so you can see that this is fully adjustable with the straps and then also back here little metal right here metal right here so cute also this is one that passes like the mom test cuz I feel like I could it's not so Vegas it's like sexy mature Vegas like I said it's a realistic State Line state line actually scary no Fremont it's Fremont Street okay actually my suit's a little more Circus Circus Mom what's your rating number oh five five Ally five and for me this suit is maybe a 10 it is just like so snatched it is so fitted and here's the other thing I like for all of my teeny tiny boob ladies out there these sorts of suits with underwire usually have so much extra space inside this fits me perfectly I think because it has clas in the back to tighten this entire area and I just think that if modesty is important to you but you still want to look and feel amazing this is your suit 100% it totally covers the butt really move a lot yeah like Ally said it has this cool stitching along the side and this would look so cute with a pair of jeans everything is a bodysuit everything is a bodysuit so I'm just here to stay like this is this is just who I am now iscra cupy you nail bag and with that my friends that brings our fourth annual swim swimuit try on haul to a close hopefully you guys like this hopefully you feel inspired to go to the beach to go to the pool whatever the case is if you want to do those things just do it because as my mom told us and forgot if you want a swimsuit body you have a body and put on a swimsuit linking to all of these suits down in the description but before we go friends let us know which was your favorite suit 1 2 or three Tom Jones here we come right right right right in Vegas you guys please leave a comment letting me know who Tom Jones who is Tom Jones who is Tom Jones is he like friends with um Englebert Humper Englebert Humper ding they had a oh they had a falling out oh a Vegas falling out are they friends with those those siblings that sing together and do Dancing with the Stars Osborne the Osborne I don't know about them he's osman's not the osor written SC T oh my gosh you're kidding me that's my favorite show I don't know he's voice is he alive yes oh my gosh you guys thank you so much for watching share this with your mom your sister your friend anyone who wants a little comedy or a little swimwear in their life and with that we bid you ad do I was going to say Ad do to to you and you and [Music] you [Music]

2.Hia, welcome back to my YouTube channel. I'm Rosie Henaw. If you're new here, then welcome. It's lovely to meet you. And if you're already existing, guys, and thank you so much for coming back. I really do appreciate it. Grab yourselves a nice cup of tea and some snacks. We are about to have the best carnage video. I think I've done in a while.
I'm hyper. I'm excited. I wasn't planning on filming this today. Let this just be said. So, Cupshi I've worked with a couple of times in the sense of they will gift me some items to try and share with you guys. The first ever video I did, you guys loved it because Cupshi, they'll send the stuff and honestly if certain things don't fit or there's a style that I don't like or there's an element I don't like, they just let me say it and it's really nice cuz there's so many brands that I wouldn't take clothes off of or work with because they don't let you do that. Cup she is completely honest. So, if there's something that's ill-fitting or if I think you've got, you know, bigger boobs and I don't think it's sort of made for bigger boobs, I'll be honest, they do lots of swimwear and clothing. Every time I've done a video with them, you guys love the stuff. So, they asked me if I'd like to collaborate with them over for like when I'm going on holiday for the stuff. I'm filming early. Hopefully, Cup let me put this up earlier. Um, because this is just randomly pre-filmed. I got up this morning. I've put on my fake tan. This is not how I'm going to look. I'm very patchy. This is before it's been washed off.
So, I'm very patchy. I look like a little grubby biscuit. I smell like one, too. But I really wanted to try these bits on. The stuff come today. I started getting it out the packet. It's got so excited to try it on. I was like, "Oh, this looks lovely." I was like, "No, stop. Stop." I've tried like three things on and I'm obsessed already.

So, I was like, "Just get the camera on and just film it." So, here it is, guys. I'm filming it today. So, cup sheet. I've obviously gifted these. I'm just being transparent. These items are gifted. Um, I do want to say as well, um, they do give me a code for you guys. They did do last time as well.
So, I'll leave it here on description here on screen. I'll also put in description box because I say I weren't meant to film. I weren't meant to film this [ __ ] yet, but I know you can get a discount off over £49 if you use my code. I know you'll get a big discount off and then if you spend more, there's a different code.
I'll leave the links in the description box and the codes and I'll also put them on screen here. Um, so let's start with the first thing. So, I've got one of the dresses on for the minute. I'm going to start with dresses and then I want to get into swimwear. I'm not even ready for swimwear. I'm Let's just say if you're related to the shapes, I'm not ready for swimwear, but we're going to do it today because I'm just too excited.
Let's get carried away. Um, so I'm going to start off with this dress. So, I did order I did pick a couple of things and they've sent like a couple of bags for, which I was not expecting to try on some of the new bits and give my honest review. And I love that because they always let me be completely honest.
Um, so I did pick this one. I think I think I did because when we go on holiday this year, obviously I'm a mum of four. I very really very quickly realized when we went on our first holiday, I don't need all the stuff that I pack. Um so nice little short dresses that are just nice to chuck on over the top of a bikini or you can wear flip flops of a nighttime like little studded glittery ones or something. I saw this one.
I thought this was really nice. Um I got this in a size XL. This is really nice to the knee. It's loads of space, lots and lots and lots of room. I do need to iron it. Um, and it's got these really lovely little angel sleeves as well. They're like little butterfly sleeves. Really, really pretty. I really love this.
And it's in the most gorgeous um little green daisy print, which is really, really nice. And I thought this is just lovely. I love the color green as you all know around the decor. So, I put this on. But to be honest with you, I was in my bra and I was like, just chuck something on to do the intro. Um, so we're 3 minutes in.
I've still not even done like the fully like try bits on, but let's get in. Very excited. I just love clothes. So, I just got out the bag. I was like, "Hello, clothes. Let's put you on." Gary was like, "What are you doing?" I was like, "I'm going to do a try on cuz these are really nice." So, you'll understand when I show you this.
I got this. This was the first thing I got out of the bag and I got literal goosebumps, guys. I was like, "That is beautiful. Look at this navy dress." I'm sorry that is giving designer vibes. I had one like this in my basket for another shop and I know that it was quite pricey and I was just like, you know, you make up them fake baskets.
I do that all the time. I'm like, if I was rich, what would I stick in my basket? And I put loads of things in there but never check out cuz obviously I can't. But I just Oh, right. Listen, I'm going to try this dress on. Right. They give me a size extra large. I really hope the extra large fits. I really do because it's so beautiful.
Look at this neckline, guys. It's fits neck lines like this that look really nice. Match with some tan sand dogs, straw back. It's zipping up. It is zipping up. Obviously, the the car key very orange tan is ruining it a bit. The vibes, but it's fine. We've got this down. This is so exciting. Look.
And then we've got the tie goes to the back. This is just like a dress of dreams. I've actually got my tan sandals in here cuz I popped out. So, I'm going to pull me boobs up as well. Anyone have that problem? You got to pull boobs down. Oh, I love this dress. I'd obviously wear like a bit more of an invisible bra than this. I can't actually do it completely up either.
I need Gary's help. But it does up to right up the top so you don't see your bra. How gorgeous is this dress? Even with like a little look into everything I've been wearing today. Me belt come straight off. Me sliders come straight off. Can even tuck that belt in. Look. This is such a nice dress. This is such a nice dress.
This is the first one I got out of the bag and then I was like, I'm doing a try on. Doing a try on. I do need to calm down though cuz I'm like and I wet myself and the pelvic floor ain't what it used to be. I was four kids. I need to really do calm down. I love this dress. I got this in extra large. I have no idea what the names are of these or the prices cuz I'm so not planned.

What I'm going to do is though is I will list them in order of they show on there and I'll put a description of what they are with the links next to them as well. And I'll put the prices and the size that I wore as well cuz obviously there's quite a bit we've got to get through. The second dress I got out the packet. You're going to you're going to understand why I got so excited. This was the first dress.
Didn't actually put this one on. I just got it out the packet. This one I put on. I'm just just so excited. Got the slip underneath. Now, can you understand my excitement? Like, these are giving beautiful spring and summer designer wear pieces. And I know cupsy prices aren't designer, so I know these are so beautiful.
Oh, I just love them. So, we've got a five split, but it isn't actually at five. It's at knee length, which I was saying in my last try on video, can we not have them this level? Which is perfect. We've also got lots of room because this has got look guys a shred back on the back of it as well.
So if you need the extra space, it's going to stretch out to you. I would wear like a lower bra or maybe like a strapless bra with this just so that you don't see it. But this is beautiful. And for holiday as well, like this is a really nice length. This is down in a size extra large as well. I think most of mine are extra large. Some things come up like large because they might be more of a smok style, but this is so unbelievably pretty.
The pattern on this is just gorgeous. It's a really nice pattern. And I just think in the summer, how beautiful is this going to look? This is so nice. That would also look nice. Calm down a bit now with this belt, too. Like just just really, really pretty dresses. Um, so I have no idea what else there is.
I've not unpackaged all these bits now, but as I say, I feel like this was a haul that was warranted because in case any of these bits sell out as well, I can share them with you cuz I know you've got occasions. This would be beautiful for like a wedding guest. Beautiful. The other one that is beautiful for work occasions.
You could dress that up, dress that down. Um, so I've just seen a little red packet. So, I'm going to open this one. This is a size extra large. And it is Oh, this is nice. This beautiful red dress. Let's pop this one on as well. Oh, this color. Oh, I love that waist bit. It's very um It's giving a keep saying giving. I got to stop saying that. You're giving cring intros. It looks like um not like children. Do you know what I mean? Like I'm a damsel. I'm a little dam. So, I'm going to say it's a bit baggier around the boobs than I would like it, but it has got this sh pan at the side. I probably could size down in this to get to size large and then I think actually it would make it a bit tighter here.
And because this is a completely shred panel at the back, I could definitely get away with downsizing because I'll still have the space on the hips and the belly because it's shared at the back. But it's good to know. So this is in a size large. Sometimes they sent me a large and an extra large if they're sort of like a bit like in between a size or they know that one area is a bit larger than the rest.
Do you know what I mean? But I don't know if they're sent on. I've seen a few red packets and so I'll have a little look. If there is a large in this, I'll obviously just try this on when I come across it cuz there's so many pockets here. Um, but I think this is really nice. The length on this is beautiful and it does have pockets, too. Yes, it does have pockets.
Being delusional. Um, so this is a beautiful midi length. This is stunning. Um, so I I don't know if the red pant is there. If we come across it, we come across one. Right. So, I've also seen another which I know is a dress cuz I picked this one. So, it's blue and white. Look, got a blue and white packet. Um, so this is in a size extra large as well. I'm going to try this one on.
Been watching a lot of um sort of period dramas at the minute. I've like re-watched the whole of Bridgetton and I'm giving myself Bridgetton vibes. D new Bridgetton. This blue is stunning. Like I'm sorry, afternoon tea. Yay. Off the shoulders. Really pretty as well. Definitely could have that off the shoulder. I'm going to lift my bra down.
That is so nice. So, this is in a size extra large. I would say this is bang on to be fair. You got the little ruffle here. This is more of a maxi length. Really lovely. This is all shred as well. So, there's a loads of room in these dresses which I love, but also because they shared and they come in sometimes, especially when I go on holiday with the shirt ones, sometimes I don't have to wear a bra either.

So, this would be really nice for on holiday. Imagine like little gold sandals bag. I think this would be really pretty as well. Um, I did have a look. What's this? Now we've opened all the ones. Now we tried all the ones that I've opened all the packets. Right. What dress is this? They're all coming back to me. I think I picked this one. No, I didn't pick this one. Oh, no. I didn't pick this one. And actually, I'm not really a hterette girl, but we'll give it a go. We'll have a little try. This is so pretty. This actually is very similar pattern to a dress Millie used to have years ago that I got her for a christening and that we went to and that was really beautiful and that's just really like took me back to that pattern.
So I'm not normally a halterneck girl. I don't really like hex style on me but this is beautiful and obviously we're all different styles and shapes so it's good to try different bits on to see what they've actually got. Like the swimwear I haven't even got on to the swimwear yet. Swimwear is amazing. Like cuz I picked some swimwear cuz obviously I'm going on holiday so I thought I'll pick that and a couple of the dresses when all this come I was like wow. But it's nice to try it on and share with you. Right. See this is going to be something I'm completely honest about. This is not a mean dress in the slightest. I'm not a halterneck girl. One.
I probably could wear a strapless bra but we've got this gape here. Oh no. has got to be tied. There isn't that gape. Needs to be tied at the back, but I can't do it. Um cuz I can't reach it. It'd be a bit more fitted. I'm not really a hawk neck girl. And also strapless bras tend to end up a bit here on me.
So then I keep needing to lift them up. I feel like sometimes I can get away with like a bra that has a clear strap that's strapless with them sort of dresses. But something like this, I think you'd notice. It's a beautiful length. It's a beautiful length and it's a really stunning dress. I'm not going to take that away. I think if you have smaller boobs, you don't need to wear a bra. This would look phenomenal. Um, and obviously if you've got bigger boobs and you want to wear this, it will be phenomenal. I just know that look about my bra strap, it would look really pretty. It's just I know my boobs are going to end up where where they are without actually sit without a bra, which is which is about here. It is a really nice. It does come in nice on the waist as well. So, it gives it that lovely look. bit the JLo look. Do you know what I mean? Remember JLo in Y2K? That sort of era, right? So, we've gone from Bridget and vibes, Tom JLo. Now, if I go to say vibe one more time, you got to be like, Rosie, pack it in. Like, enough with the vibe talk.
Seriously. Found another one that would be perfect for holiday, guys. So, it's this really beautiful smok. Comes to the knees. really lovely and oversized, but it's got this little tiny tuck here which brings it a little bit in, but it's still nice and waisted. It' be really good for breastfeeding as well. So, it tucks it in, but it still smoks over, which is really nice.
Got this really lovely sleeves as well. These bottoms are faux buttons, so you know, they're not going to pop open and stuff, which is nice. And this would be really, really lovely for holiday. Doesn't have sh paneling, but it's that really nice, it's not jersey material. It's similar to a jersey material, but it's just really, really lovely.
Um, so at the side of the beach or pool, you could literally just chuck this on, some flip-flops, nice sunglasses. This is a really, really nice dress. Actually, I really love the color of this as well. This is really nice. Even if you're having like a barbecue in the garden, you know, you just put something on, it's nice.
You've got your legs out, you feel nice and comfortable and cool in. This is really lovely. I've also spotted this really beautiful mesh green dress. Now, this would look lovely with gold accessories for a night out. So, if you are hitting the town, I mean, it hasn't all got be holiday based, but I think these are really lovely dresses.
There's quite a few wrinkly bits in this, which is quite nice. Um, and then it comes down and it's a really nice length actually, and there's no fire spits in this. It's rooouched at the sides, too. And so, this is really nice, like a maxi dress. This would be quite nice as well, actually. Like I say, with the gold accessories for holiday and or even if you're going on a night out, I actually think where I've just done my hair that bit darker, I think it looks quite nice with the car key as well.
Um, so yeah, I do like this. It's a bit of a tulip as well. So even though it comes on to the hips, you've got a little bit more space at the bottom, it doesn't go all the way down to the legs as well cuz I'm quite short as well. I'm 5 foot three. It sort of sometimes makes you look a bit shorter.

Um, so the fact that it's gone in a bit of a tulip, I find that a bit more flattering. Quite nice. Um, they've also sent out a black dress. Now this is really beautiful. See, I've got one similar to this actually. Um, so let's try this one on. Oh, this is stunning. Oh, I love this one. Oh, this is beautiful.
I love this for the tide sleeves. This is gorgeous. And it's in this really lovely like cottony liny feel material. It's actually like a really nice like bluey black, like an inky black. It's so nice. hasn't got pockets. I thought this would have pockets. It doesn't have pockets on it. It's a really lovely midi length. It's got a little bit.
These buttons do actually work. You They have got buttons all the way. They've not done them up, I suppose, for purposes. They've done one, two, miss a few. Make it easier for when you're trying it on. Does have buttons all the way down. This is so so pretty. This would look really lovely, especially spring summer with like some nice little sandals.
I'm probably going to say like little chocolate accessories or tan would look really nice for this. I love this. It isn't too booby. It's really lovely dress. This is in an extra large as well and it fits perfectly. And I love as well when you've got these tie bits, it gives you more space on your arms. You can have them done up to the top or you can have them a bit more open to have a little bit more room on your arms. This is a beautiful dress.
I love love love this one. I'm going to say this one and the blue one with the blue patterns on is probably my favorites. They are stunning. No, no. This one and the navy one and then the blue floraly one are my favorite ones. Now, let's get into swimwear. Right, we have got this navy one. This is stunning.
Well, it is a navy. It's more like a cobalt blue, royally blue. The saron I've picked is navy. I thought this was navy. It's not navy. Um, I picked this saron to go with it, but it's kind of like the same blue but not. This lighting is throwing me off a little bit, but it's like a half saron, which is really nice.
It sort of goes to the side. Show you. And you put it on. I'll show you the swimming costume as well. Got these in extra large. This is nice for a bigger bust as well. Fits nice big bust. I'm 34G and it fits me. Wrong. This tan is actually killing me over, guys. I'm sorry. My legs look ridiculous. I was so orange. Gary went, "You are not filming like that." I was like, "Yeah, I am. Yeah, I am. I'm sorry, but I am." He was like, "Really? Maybe like wash it off and do it later." I was like, "The lighting, my ring light don't work. It's been broken. I can't work it. I need to have thingy lighting." So, you're welcome for the tan. But, um, my little white jazz hands as well, I'll show it to you. This is really nice. I like the the little sarong. I think this is quite nice. It's just gives you a little something. Obviously, I've got a big bottom so it still doesn't cover very much. Um cuz I'm a pear shape, so most of my weight is carried on my hips and my bum. However, I am going to show you.
Doesn't matter. Got a really nice low back as well, which is not as tired as the rest of it cuz reaching capabilities. It's got a nice bum on it. It's not too much. It's not going to like, you know, go down a water slide and it just up the bottom. It's really nice. It's not going to be eaten. And so, I really like this. I really love this color as well. This is really nice. But it's really nice and comfy. Double lined. Really nice. They do have the little padding cups, but you can take these out cuz they have the little side bits here, which is really nice. I love the shape of this. This is beautiful. Love this square neck. This is really nice.
So, it's got a square, but it's also got this little tiny cap, which gives it something. Do you know what? You probably could put on some like widelegg shorts or trousers. You know, the the shorts with these or like a little saron. This would be really nice, but I'm thinking like nice widele linen trousers with this. This hasn't got any shaping in it whatsoever.
So, you can see my belly button through it. And it's quite like a looser one. As I say, I don't carry a lot of my weight on my tummy. I'm more on my bottom. So, just keep that in mind. I'm a pear shape. So obviously I don't I'm not too fussy if there's no shaping in this. I prefer it to be comfortable, especially getting in and out of the pool with the kids.
I'm going to say I might have to tie my hair up at this rate. I'm getting very hot and I think it's because I'm very sticky cuz of the tan. It's lucky I'm going to wash all this, isn't it? Before I wear it as well. Um but yeah, I think this is really nice. It's got that little higher bit here, which I know some people don't like.

You can pull it down if you want, but it's quite nice it's up like that. It's a bit more modern. Really like this one. Another one that I've picked. So, this has got little ruffle sleeves on it. I thought this would be really quite cute as well. I'm going to try this one on very sweaty now. This gives actual representation.
A little bit of like sweat on the face on holiday. It's got this really nice little ribbed bit here. I am just going to make sure that the boob is actually tucked in so we don't get a nipple out here. My little sideball guy. Um, this is really nice. This is really nice on the tummy. This one's a bit more shapy. Um, you've also got the bit here which is nice. It's not too high. It's like a bit lower. Um, I think this would look nice with a little son, but this could also look nice with some trousers as well as like a top in itself. I like to do that swimwear, especially on holiday. Makes it nice and easy then. Um, but I will say I just wanted to say this, if you've made it this far as well, you deserve even more of putting up with my rambling and getting excited trying stuff on.
When you are wearing swimwear, if you are feeling uncomfortable or self-conscious, regardless of your size, regardless of your weight or how you look or your age, just let it be known. Just be in the present. Just enjoy your life. We are such fleeting moments in other people's lives.
Like, I cannot remember hardly anyone that I saw on holiday last year. Can't remember anyone. Can't really remember anyone. What I remember is people that are nice that did nice things like some of the people that you met or you'd meet horrible people. Do you know what I mean? They're the people you remember and it's always personality.
It's never really how they looked. Um and I think sometimes it's very easy to sort of like not enjoy nice things because of the way you look and the way you feel. Um but I'm a curvier girl. I've got my bingo wings. I get my legs out and you know my bum isn't particularly taught. Been going to the gym now for over a year.
There's there's there's I've not worked on anything, I don't think. And it doesn't matter. I feel healthier. And a lot of people didn't understand that when I said I'm going to the gym to be healthier. And it's not about what I look like. You know, I do loads of weights to my arms. They're not muscly or anything like that. It's to be fit. And you've just got to embrace sometimes.
I know it's easier said than done what you have because what you have now is perfect. And you know, you can live your life in it. And your body is the shell that you wear to live your life and make your memory. So I just I know I missed out on so many things, nice things when I used to be self-conscious that I refuse now to miss out on anything more.
So it's just a little pep talk. Love yourself. These things are normal and no one's looking at these things. No one's looking at them. Right. So I do love this one. I've also got a swimming costume. It's a tankini. I picked this. There's a polka dot. Nice thick material. I'm going to say I'm going to have to hoist this up a bit. Oh, it's one of them ones.
So, you pull it down and it tightens that way. Oh, I love this one. Gone for a lot of navy and black this time. I don't know why. I was just drawn to the swimming costumes. I picked something red as well. Um, but I thought this was really nice. As I say, these knickers aren't giving any hold whatsoever, but this is because these are little tiny briefs.
Imagine some wide widelegg white trousers. So, I really love this. So, the next set that I picked is a red set. Um, but it's got a balcony, so I don't know if the bra is going to fit. We'll give it a go. So, it look red in the packet. It's not red. It's bright pink. Now, I love this. This is such a shame. So, I think if you've got size double D or smaller boobs, you'll be fine.
However, as I say, 34GS, they're just sort of giving me a shelf. They're not holding the boobs. And this is not the sort of thing that you want to do on holiday. Do you know what I mean? The the swimming costume is lovely and the pattern is beautiful and I love this color. It's so lovely and sunny.
I could tie this up tighter, but however, if I do that, it's just folding and rippling them up, making them come out even more. So, unfortunately, and no for the pink. However, I do think this would look beautiful on someone with smaller boobs. So, I'm sharing it because, as I say, I will share the goods and the bad because it isn't anything necessarily to do with cup sheets, more to do with my sizing. Um, so obviously they can't make these fit. If they fitted me, they wouldn't fit someone with a double D or an E. Um, and then you can't win it all. So unfortunately there's a cut off point. And the cut off point is probably about a double D cuz I love these swimming costumes. My boobs are just too big for them.

Lastly, I've picked this beautiful greeny color. Really lovely green. I've gone very very grown up in colors. I think it's because I got so many lovely red ones and stuff in previous. What I'll do is is I'll link last year's one where there's lots of bikinis um in the description box. There's a lot of bikinis as well as swimming costumes and there's a lot more brighter colors, but obviously I don't need to have endless bright colors. So, I did try the pink.
Didn't work. Um so, I'm going to try the green one as well. So, we've got the green one, which is really nice. It's got this really nice sort of like rouch material in the middle here and these like they're not boned but these line bits to make it look more like this is you here. Really nice. Really clever.
Really nice booby bits. Fits my boobs nice as well. Um yet again nice round the legs. It hasn't got any shaping in this but as I say I don't really wear the shaping around the belly and I'll get my little tiny little tiny weird overhang bit there but that's because obviously I've had pregnant belly and that's just how it is.
Oh lastly before I go I wanted to share this as well. So last year I got sent out a really beautiful red bikini from Cupshue. Really nice like cup on it which I loved wearing last holiday. They didn't have any serongs to match. So I picked this. Obviously as I say I will link the video below of last year cuz they still have a lot of their stuff on there.
Um so I got this really beautiful sarong skirt. So it's really really nice and I thought I'm going to wear this with my red bikini. It's really pretty just to walk around. And when you get the kids ice creams and stuff, it's really nice. And you got the little leg peep. It's really nice. I suppose you could wear it the other way if you wanted to.
I wouldn't. So, as I say, I'm going to leave all the discount codes and stuff in the description box below. I also put them on here cuz I sort of jumped the gun a little bit, but let me know what your favorite items are. I'm going to watch this back as well cuz sometimes I like things more looking back than I do or other things I'm like, "Oh, I didn't like that one.
" Um, so hopefully you've enjoyed this video, guys. I'm Rosie Henshaw. See you later. Take care.

3. hey what's up you guys it's Kaylee welcome back to my Channel or welcome if you're new here we are doing a really fun video today we are doing a try and hop video with cupshi I'm so excited to be working with them I've been to a few of their events and they are just amazing not only do they have really cute products and accessories but they also are just a wonderful company to work with they are so sweet and everybody that's a part of their team is just amazing for this try and haul video I'm gonna be showing you guys some products from their newer collection for spring and summer with stassi or Stasi baby you guys know her everybody loves her she's amazing and she's beautiful the new collection with Saucy will feature swimsuits and dresses and the concept of the new swimsuit line features Oasis element which means the colors will be more brighter the cutouts will be more distinctive and the theme will be more wild oh we love and I'm so excited to see what's to come with this collection with stassi and I'm just so excited to show you guys some of the new products so let's just let's get right to it yeah before we get into the try and haul part of the video if you're like Kaylee you're talking too much I know sorry but you're gonna like this part I have a discount code for you guys so if you're interested in purchasing anything that I show in this video or just anything in general from cupshi you can use my discount code kaylee15 or 15 off sidewired on orders over 65 spring has sprung and the summer is just around the corner and I know you want to go shopping for the new season so if you're interested you can use Kaylee 15 or 15 off all right let's get back to the video bikini at number one is bralette for a standard rise Misty bikini set and I got this in the size small I think it's so cute and it's perfect for spring and summer I can totally picture even the top you can wear it with like these baggy jeans but let me show you guys the bikini right now so the bikini top is this really cute like almost like a picnic blanket picnic basket kind of Vibes see how I like saying that it's for spring and summer I could totally picture like hanging out with my girlfriends going to either the park or the beach and having just like a really cute like a girl like picnic kind of vibe you know um like little strawberries and little like drink okay you see you feel it's so cute so here is the bralette like frilly going on here so cute there's like a little tie here that you can push up and stretch it out however you pleased to fit the girls so cute the straps are adjustable on the back but there is no clamps so it just is like a slide over kind of thing you can adjust like the band you can adjust the straps on the top cute little Frills I love it it's super girly and like so cute kind of gives me like fairy-ass scribes you know and then here are the bottoms they are just like a high waisted um bottom here sorry I had it like sideways here it is they do look kind of big okay like you see them but I've noticed that for cupshi they look bigger but when you put it on it literally just fits like a glove and for their bottoms most of them are a pretty good coverage they're not like diaper booty and they're not like full-on thongs I think they're just the perfect coverage so you can like hang out with the fam and them you know what I mean super cute and I just think a very very girly which I love item number two is the Laurie sheer leg slit cover-up dress and I have this in the size of small I Honestly Love a cup she's cover-ups I have some from last year and I'm so excited to have a few more for this year you can just never go wrong with cover-up you can wear it on at the pool and you can also wear it at the beach you know they're just so cute and they just like touch up the bikini you know and you like just want to walk around be like oh I just don't want to like wear my bikini while I'm walking to like you know to get myself a smoothie or something you know what I mean so this cover up is so cute it's actually this really pretty white so here is the cover-up dress it's so nice very lightweight it's kind of like this like mesh almost like a crochet kind of material um I know it's a little confusing and probably better to see when I'm wearing it as I'll put it on the side over here um but the front just has like the two little like triangles for your boobs and then on the back it's stringy so you have the strings that go on your back and then it ties here in the lower part of your body and of course because of the name has the slit for the leg it is right here I love a good leg slit It's just something like Schmucks you know so cute I love this and honestly if you wanted to you could wear like a nude bodysuit under this and then like wear it out put a belt over it wear a little cowgirl hat I think you could even wear this for like brunch like super cute I love it fits really nice and it matches in the right places item number three is part of the stassi collection and it's called The stassi Crystal Waters underwire top and v-cut hipster bikini set and it's in the color sky and I got it in the size so it's small and I'm actually really excited for this bikini I just I don't know this color and like this style is so cute you guys know from all the other bikini hauls that I was doing that I'm a little like skeptical of buying bikinis with the underwire but like as it's gone pretty well with the ones I've received I was like okay we have to like this one is just way too cute so like a Passover so I did go ahead and get the underwire um it's so pretty like the color is just amazing and I don't know if you guys can tell on camera but it has like more of like a shimmer to it and sometimes like Shimmer bikinis are really itchy but this material is so soft like I love so for this bikini obviously it has underwear on the bottom of the cups and then there is padding but you can remove the padding on this the straps on here are not adjustable but they are pretty stretchy um but there is a clamp on the back to adjust for the band size so we love that at least one part of the bikini is adjustable and then for the bikini of bottoms right here really really cute the coverage on the butt is a little bit smaller than the first bikini so it's a little bit cheekier but it is not like a thong so it's still like has a pretty good coverage it just shows enough of the booty you know what I mean it would probably be perfect for tanning and then at the front has like the v-cut like it says in the name of the bikini super super cute I honestly really love the style of bikini bottoms and usually they have like a basic bikini when it goes with this like a triangle top with like these bottoms and like as much as like really cute to have like a stable like basic you know bikini I love how this one comes with like more of like a unique kind of bikini top to spice it up a little bit you know but I love this color and I think it'll look amazing when I'm like a little bit more tan you know because I'm still kind of pale right now because it's cold outside but like once that summer tan comes like you know that summer glow it'll look so good I honestly really love this bikini alrighty item number four is this really cute ruffled underwire top in high waist bikini set this color is almost like a cream yeah like a cream yellowy white it's very boho-esque Vibes I would say like super super cute you guys obviously you can tell I love boho so it has the little Ruffles on the top of the cups here and the underwire here at the bottom underwear honestly is really soft like some bikinis are really harsh and like especially some bras too but this one's really nice it does have removable cups in that the padding of the bikini with adjustable straps on the top and the back as well as clamps over here to adjust for your band super super cute I love how cute and dainty it is and then the bottoms here are high-waisted with just like a modern like caught like the butt is like somewhat covered but it's like not fully covered you know what I mean does that make sense you guys get it you'll see it and the band here is kind of like a double band I would say like here is like the crease of the band here and then they have extra fabric going on up here super cute with like a cheeky high like cut for your legs so your hips would look so natural and curvy as well it does have like the V effect going on here to help accentuate your body I think it's so cute I love these bottoms they're so pretty I actually really love this color

I was a little iffy about it but like honestly again like with the tan because I feel like I'm like basically the same color as this right now um I will look so much better in my personal opinion for myself um but I really love I think it's just so cute and girly and perfect for spring but obviously for summer too so I love love all right last but not least we have the crochet tassel cover up dress I got it in the color apricot and the size is small now this is just so cute it really makes me want to go somewhere tropical like Mexico like or like Bahamas or something it's so so pretty and I've been wanting one of these so bad like I think it'll be really cute with like a belt too or honestly you're just like hey like I want to go grab like a snack but we're chilling at the beach in our bikinis on my liciousness over you know what I mean so freaking cute it does have a v-neck over here in the front and then short sleeves um over here kind of looks like a tank top but in a tank top dress you know what I mean so cute and then the tassels are here at the bottom with an asymmetrical cut here going down so cute very like a boho-esque very tropical Vibes so so cute and here is like the knit detail so pretty pretty I really love this color it's beautiful and honestly I really need more cover-ups I'm so glad I snacked one of this and it looks so cute with pretty much any bikini because this is like a neutral toned dress you know what I mean you know so we love so so cute all right you guys that was everything for this try and haul video with cupshi and the collaboration with stassi if you're interested in purchasing any of the items from this video or just in general from cupshi don't forget to use my discount code at kaylee15 for 50 off site-wide orders over 65 thank you guys so so so much for watching I really hope you enjoyed this video if you did please go ahead and give it a big thumbs up as well as don't forget that subscribe button if you enjoyed it this video and you'd like to see more as me as well as clicking the notification Bell so you can get notified every time I post don't forget to follow me on my other platforms my Instagram my Tick Tock and my Twitter and hopefully I'll see you in my next video love you guys bye [Music]

4.[Music] hey loves welcome back to my channel today I am doing a very fun little swimwear haul I know that it's November okay I know it is in Miami and it's literally literally somewhere year-round and I know many of you snowbirds might be planning a vacation somewhere tropical just taking a break from the winter so I just thought I would do this that all ha to give us a break from all the cold weather for everyone that doesn't put it down here in South Florida every single piece in this haul is under $30 I've got 10 summer pieces that I'm trying on for you today this is one of them other links to all the products are at my description don't forget to give this video a thumbs up if you liked it subscribe to my channel and turn on that little belt to get notified about when I upload a video so you'll never miss a pose also my apartment tour is finally up on my vlog Channel thank God I know I've been saying that I'm gonna upload it for a long time and it's finally up and I will be doing a vlog miss on my vlog shop and that's going to be very very fun so make sure you subscribe to my vlog channel with notifications on as well let's go ahead and get into the hop so here is the first bathing suit and oh my god it is so cute I want to say it's my favorite but it's the first one I'm trying on so I don't know what the others look like yeah but I love love love these little tonsils has a cute little tie-dye print and the freaking bottoms actually fit cute so the thing with cup sheet is a lot of their bottoms do you run really really big I'm just someone that I prefer really small bikinis I mean I love Miami so I guess it feels like that kind of thing but I don't like bikinis I cover too much because I don't think they look that sorry but this one surprisingly fits so well and it's actually very flattering talk is adjustable back here these jobs are just about I'm just not of the class back so banks having a class both the top and the bottom are small and I'm a 32d and a small fit perfectly so here is the next fitting suit the top I love I think it's very flattering gives you more like an hourglass shape just the fact that it was like this the bottom I'm a little bit confused about because it's not really high waist but it's not like a hip bottom either like I'm I'm just confused it gives me kind of like a retro vibe here is the back of the bottom it does cover quite a bit so for being a small it is a little bit big the runs on the bigger side but it's just a very kind of different look I guess then I usually go for the straps are adjustable and removable so let's see what it looks like oh here it is stop the straps and it is so cute strapless like oh my god baby exposer like this I just wish the bottom was either high waist all the way or a complete like hip bottom like this but honestly I would probably pair this top with either a navy blue bottom like if I can find a bottom in the same color or just a white bottom I I'm actually very pleasantly surprised misleading sue because I didn't think I would like it as much as I do so here is the next bathing suit and holy smokes I love this baby soul like sexy the top is so nice and the bottom I think fit super wan flattering and it's not too revealing where it's like oh my gosh but it has a scrunch butt to give your butt shape you know so the back of this is kind of like a hook and there's three different like cupcake so you can hook it on I have it on the widest one cuz I did order a small so if it's perfect on me for being a small and the straps here are adjustable this material actually has kind of like a shiny little Q to it so sorry for the boob close-up but you can kind of see the shiny material here like one the light hits it looks really really nice and shiny and it's seeker here in this white Park I love the little detail here it also has the white thing here and yeah this is a small it fits perfect I'm so happy with this baby ooh wow I can't wait to wear it so here is the fourth venue so let me start off by saying I love this top this shop is very badass this is kind of like a mesh material here in the back is a zipper the bottom look I like how the front looks so the bottom is actually true layered the first there is this green army color and the second there is the same match but on top so I do like how it looks from the front however the back is kind of like a little bit baggy I would just probably pair this chop up with a black plain bottom or if I can find a green box in the same exact shape I would like this isn't awesome attitude towards it like a pool party or something or like a festival oh my god actually this can double up I was like a crop top I don't think if she just it only has to be a bathing suit like if you wear this with black high-waisted jeans or leggings it would make a really cool crop top actually the next bathing suit here is the back so I'm not causing a halfway scratch but I get scrunch but here and then it turns regular the bottom isn't too bad considering I am compared to the other huge bikini bottoms the top actually does tie in the middle which I'm very happy about because I thought it was one of those fake ties and I was like oh no when I first put it on if it really really big but you can adjust it yourself you can tie it in the middle this is a small and it fits perfect and the materials kind of like this blue ribbon material I'll get closer for you guys to see especially because you tie it together so basically like kind of pushes your boobs together so house like that push-up effect without being a push-up base here is the next one I have got to say I'm so impressed with all these bathing suits and I did do a cup she haul a few months ago it was in the beginning of this year and this haul every single one even the ones that I didn't really expect to impress me that much I just I love them all and the fit is so so good I'm just I'm sure there's this kind of like little boho piece so this one I am probably preparing with a plain black bottom just because I feel like in my opinion these two prints together for me it's just too much like I feel like it would look good with just a plain black bottom here is the back oh that's cute it just tie in with the design here back it is actually pretty pretty cute like it's not super huge I've been loving this style of top the one that comes up all the way to your neck and this is actually adjustable here the string ties behind the neck this is a small it's perfect on me it is a little snug so I would say it's kind of true to size is former bathing suits after this one and I would love to know what you guys think so far and I go ahead and leave me a comment right now and let me know which one is your favorites so far or at the end you can let me know which one is your favorite but I'm loving them all I was literally just thinking why isn't cups you make more bathing suits a tireless on man I try this on so I was like okay my booty is definitely a lot better than I think it is but I have at this bottom is it's huge I was like oh my god this is gonna fit me a diaper and then it put it on it actually fits quite well so I'm like oh [ __ ] I'm not not as skinny as I think I am obviously you're in the bottom it is also another half scrunch so like the top part is scrunch but I do wish the whole thing would be scrunch but let might not just make the whole thing scream scratch but you know what I mean I love the stylus top it's a super cute fun a very different style bathing suit it's kind of like a bandeau top and I feel like this is another top that you'd probably be able to wear also as a crop top not just in the bathing suit like if you put it together with jeans or something like that it looks like a crop top but it's out made out of a piece of material straps are adjustable the only thing is that I wish the straps are removable and they're not like the removal in the back and they're not removable from the front they're like sold in which makes me sad because I think this would look so cute without straps do you really like the color it's like a wine burgundy color it's very flattering it's actually perfect for fall so I don't know a few wear meetings into the fall where you guys are but it's a very fallish color I can wear near Miami during movie here is the first one that I'm not really that much of a fan of here's the buck can see the lace up detail I just try to look some more of a sports bra gonna be a suit like it covers a lot maybe if I were to go surfing or something or do some kind of crazy watersports this would be the perfect top to wear is it really covers and holds everything in but for the pad lines I would get a total farmer sound with this I'm just like no I honestly feel like I would just wear this to the gym as a sports bra like not even has a bathing suit and the bottom is quite big as well especially in the back if it's really well it's a small it holds everything in together really tight like if I jump up and down it holds everything here is the next bathing suit and there's a lot of inner things that you might not like this is like well I do love the style of this top huh traps here on the neck you guys know I've been living that style the bottom is one of those huge bottoms again so I would probably just spare this a regular black bottom like I'm the super cheeky black bottom that I've here with everything and it would look super cute together here is the back of it like I said it just covers a lot I do know a lot of people wear high coverage bikinis so if that is your style this is definitely for you although this is not very high covered and it's really adjustable like this is actually adjustable on the strap so you can make it tighter on yourself yeah I do like the top of this banding so a lot I'll probably be wearing the top but definitely not the bottom I blend in with these on here is a nice bathing suit in this haul and I picked it for the color but I am NOT a fan of this style like I don't think of it's too flattering the boob area I think it's supposed to look like this like like this this needs to be a lot tighter it's not adjustable it is kind of loose so it I'll kind of just I don't know I just don't like the shape of it bottom is kind of one of those big bottoms I don't want to give much shape to your booty so I'm not a fan of these bottoms too too much I said the color is gorgeous so you can kind of see the material here you can see how it's ripped from side to side and I don't like that the black peeks out it's like the lining that goes underneath the bathing suit so that I'm not crazy but I mean it's last matings - it's the one that I probably like the least out of ten bikinis there's only one which is this one that I'm not really a huge fan of the rest I absolutely love I might not love the bottoms as much but the top paired with another bottom that I have a little super cute or some of them I thought we're gonna be super ugly bottoms but they just not looking the right yeah that's pretty much it for the haul today you guys all the links to every single bathing suit is in my description so make sure you go ahead and check it out I'll try to put it in the exact order that I try it on so you can just go ahead and click on the one that you like I don't know what you guys think about this haul which piece was your favorite which piece did you hate it's okay you can tell me I will be offended don't forget to this video thumbs up subscribe to my channel follow me on Instagram follow my blog Channel hello so you can see more about my life check out my arm in Tahoe and all my vlogs coming up in December yeah yeah I'll see you guys next time

5. If you're headed on an all-inclusive vacation getaway and want to know exactly what to pack without overpacking, underpacking, or forgetting something crucial, this video is for you. I just came back from my all-inclusive vacation in Cancun, Mexico, and I put together this ultimate packing list for everything that you need to bring and consider when packing for a trip.
And why is all-inclusive packing so different? Your whole day revolves around the resort, the pool, the beach, and eating and drinking lots of food. So, you're not really leaving the resort as much as other vacations. So, less sightseeing outfits and more vacation outfits. And some resorts do have a dress code, especially for evening time.
And you might be doing multiple outfit changes per day. And even though it's an all-inclusive, there are some little random things that you should be bringing that the resort doesn't offer. So, be sure to stay till the end where I go over the random things you should definitely bring on vacation. So, first, let's go over the airport outfit, which I think is overlooked.
Whenever I travel and I'm wearing like a sweat set, I do feel when I land in Cancun or a resort place really hot because it's obviously a bit warmer, and I don't feel vacation ready. All I want to do is go to the room and shower. Like, so I do think what you wear on the plane and when you arrive will really have a different mindset on how you feel when you arrive on vacation.
So, I would consider maybe wearing like a cute two-piece set that could easily be a swimsuit cover-up. If you are traveling from a cooler place, this might be a bit more challenging. So, I would maybe consider putting like a cashmere wrap or like a shawl that you can easily take off. And pro tip, I did pack a pair of flip-flops in my carry-on bag, and when I was waiting for my bag to come in the Cancun airport, I changed from my sneakers into my flip-flops, and that alone helped me get into that mindset. So, pro tip, always have a pair of sandals or flip-flops that you can change into as soon as you land. And also, on top of that, add in a swimsuit just in case your room isn't ready, you can easily put on your swimsuit, have your swimsuit cover-up, flip-flops. What else do you need for your vacation? So, definitely recommend having those change of clothes as soon as you land so you can get into vacation mode sooner.
Next thing to consider when packing for your all-inclusive resort getaway is, I like to call this buffet clothes. So, what are you wearing in the morning? If you do work out, I would bring your workout clothes and a pair of workout sneakers for the gym or even just walking around the resort.
The resort that I was at was actually really big, but I could easily do like my regular morning hour walk in and actually just see more of the resort while no one was up, which was really nice to do. But after that, what are you wearing to the buffet? I think it's overlooked. I always like to wear a cute comfy set that kind of looks like pajamas.
It feels like it, but it's a little bit more elevated and a bit more resort-like. I love this orange yellow set from Amazon. Super cute. Along with this striped green set, which I thought it was just a fun easygoing breakfast outfit. And by the way, these could also act as swimsuit cover-ups, so you can wear this with a swimsuit on underneath and head right to the pool after your breakfast buffet.
But sometimes you want to wake up really early and maybe you want to go grab coffee at like the coffee shops, something that you can just easily put on and head out the door. Sometimes I do forget to pack like these casual vacation clothes. So, it's always good to have a few things that you can just casually wear around and feel really comfortable in.

Okay, next, of course, you're going to be packing some swimsuits. When it comes to packing swimsuits for an all-inclusive vacation, I do think packing a few more than you think you need is really helpful. One, you might get wet and then want to go to lunch. You don't want to be wet during lunch. I just think it's like really gross to sit in a wet swimsuit and try to eat. I can't do it. So, it's good to have an extra swimsuit for that day. Or if you want to go like a night swim or even a hot tub at night, you don't want to wear a wet swimsuit the next day because it does take swimsuits longer to dry, especially when the humidity is up.
I would say at least pack one swimsuit per day. Or if you're going for a longer time, allow at least a day and a half for your swimsuit to fully dry. And if you're looking for really cute swimsuits to pack on vacation, I love the swimsuits from Cupshe. They're affordable and they're so chic, and I'm so excited that Cupshe is partnering with me on today's video.
Cupshe has really stepped up their game and come out with some very chic, designer-like swimwear for a fraction of the price. I personally love Cupshe one-piece swimsuits, and this one right here is giving high-end designer vibes. It's a beautiful geometric pattern, and this style does have a little peekaboo in the front and a tie in the back, which really helps support the girls.
Cupshe swimsuits I'm a size large across the board, and I thought this one was really fun. Another one that I wore all the time on vacation is this stunning black one-piece swimsuit. This is for those if you like to wear one-piece, but you still want to feel a little bit sexy. This one has a lower V-neckline, and I love this gold detail right in the front. Really gorgeous.
And I love that the back has that crisscross. I'm telling you, Cupshe has stepped up their game, including this stunning square neckline swimsuit. Sometimes when it comes to swimwear, I feel like the more classic the cut, the more expensive it looks. And this square neckline swimsuit is so gorgeous. I feel like a million bucks in this swimsuit.
And they all have removable cups if you want to take them out. Another one-piece swimsuit that I'm loving is this simple yet sophisticated one-piece swimsuit. Beautiful square neckline, and the straps on this one are actually adjustable, so it's very custom on how you want to fit it. And I love this blueprint. It's giving those vacation vibes, and it kind of like shows off the chest beautifully. Usually, one-shoulder swimsuits never work out for me because I have a larger chest. I felt very supported in this one, and I love that this one has a ruffle sleeve along the shoulder. Again, sophisticated, classy, elegant style. Oh, yes, there's more.
We have another classic one-piece swimsuit. I love the V-neckline, and the back has this kind of cute bow detail. Now, the fabric on this one does have a rib on it, so it's going to just give you a nice stretch. Cupshe does have amazing two-piece options. It's a beautiful brown swimsuit cover-up.
It has a nice texture on it, which is really elegant to me. And this one does come with a matching like a little skort. This next one I thought was so cute. It's a regular black bikini style. The bottoms on these are so cute. I love that embellished detail right here. This reminds me of like swimsuits from Zara, and these are a fraction of the price.
And of course, no vacation is complete without a swimsuit cover-up. I love that black trim along the front side. This is a crochet cover-up, shorter style with a long sleeve. Goes with every swimsuit. And of course, there's nothing like a white swimsuit cover-up. This one has shorter sleeves.
This one's going to be such a great one to have because it's extremely, extremely lightweight, and there is a side slit. So, I want to thank Cupshe again for partnering with me on today's video. They have so many cute resort wear vacation fashion finds. As you are headed on an all-inclusive getaway or a vacation and need some new beachwear, definitely check them out.
I have linked all of these down below, and I do have a Cupshe discount code right here. So, you can save on your vacation finds. And if you also plan on doing some resort wear activities, especially they have like water aerobics, they have like water yoga, I would bring a more activity swimsuit.
So, I like to bring like a one-piece swimsuit. So, if I want to do like beach volleyball or I want to do like jet skiing or whatever activity, make sure a one-piece is not going to fall off. I have done tubing before, and my bottoms fell off. So, I have learned the hard way not to wear a two-piece swimsuit when it comes to any water activity.

So, just keep it on a one-piece, and you'll be good to go. Of course, you have to bring some cover-ups on vacation. I just shared some cute ones from Cupshe, but I love bringing a few cover-ups. Now, ideally, they would match with more of your swimsuits so you don't have to bring as many. When I was just on this vacation, I did pack a lot of swimsuits.
When I was going through them, if I packed a little less, it would have made my decision-making a little bit more easily. So, that's kind of my opinion on overpacking for vacation. If you want it to be very easy, relaxing, you don't want to think about too much, think about that when you are packing. The less you have to decide to wear, the more easy your everyday decisions are.
With swimsuit cover-ups, I would bring a few, and you can easily rewear them twice in your vacation. No one's going to notice, okay? I don't think you need to bring as many, but I personally love a crochet style cover-up. I think they're easy, they're lightweight, and they look great if you want to pop it on if you want to go to lunch, go to the lunch buffet, or sit-down lunch.
They're easy just to put on over your swimsuit and still look really cute and fun and vacation-like. You could also pack a swimsuit cover-up pant, and you could just pull it on over your swimsuit. Some resorts, the one that I was at had a dress code, especially for dinner and daytime, which I'll get to the dinner dress code later. But during the daytime, they didn't allow you to be wet in your swimsuit if you wanted to go to a lunch or buffet just because if you sat down wet in the swimsuit, the next person sitting down is going to sit in your wet swimsuit.
So, I totally understand that. So, for me, I actually did change my swimsuit quite a bit because I think it's also really refreshing not to be sitting around in a wet swimsuit all day. If you know, you know. It's not very comfortable. So, I like to even bring an extra swimsuit down with me in my beach bag so I can easily change into it.
So, when it comes to the dress code, some places don't really allow you to wear a like a bikini top walking around. The resort that I was at wasn't too strict about that, but some might be. So, just keep that in mind. So, when you wear a swimsuit cover-up pant, maybe consider wearing that with a one-piece swimsuit for a full kind of beach vacation look.
Now, let's talk about evening wear. So, for the evening on an all-inclusive vacation, I love wearing like flowy dresses. The dress that I'm wearing right now would be perfect for an all-inclusive getaway. This one is from Cupshe. I love this blue and white pattern. And when it comes to resorts, they do often have a dress code, especially for the guys.
They normally don't allow men to wear shorts. The resort that I was at, men had to wear pants if you wanted to sit inside, but if you wanted just to have dinner on like the outdoor seating, shorts were allowed, but they had to be like smart casual shorts just because it does get warmer outside. Obviously, it's not air-conditioned, that's why they kind of let that one slide.
But to play it safe, if you are a guy or going with a guy, tell them bring at least one pair of long pants you can wear to dinner without being turned away. This also applies to cruises. If you're headed on a cruise and watching this video, definitely still applies to that. Now, for the women, the dress code does seem to be a little bit more relaxed, so I think just bring something nice and dressy.
There's nothing like sitting in the sun all day and then getting ready for dinner. It's like that great reset. You could put on a nice dress or even like a nice blouse and pant, and even like a short a small sandal. You don't even need to bring heels. A nice sandal and a nice evening bag and you are ready for your resort wear.
And here are some of my outfits that I wore on some previous all-inclusive vacations. Very casual, flowy, always a flat sandal, and mostly dresses just because they're one and done. And on this last vacation, I actually rewore some of my dresses for evening because I didn't have to bring a dress for every single day. But of course, do you.
If you want an outfit change every single day, that's totally fine. But for me, I was just like, you know what? I'm wearing it again because I don't feel like steaming my other clothes. So, I was very relaxed on this vacation. Okay, for bags, I would highly recommend bringing like a beach bag tote bag. You could do a canvas style.

I know like Lands' End and L.L.Bean have fantastic canvas bags that are really durable and easy to pack in your suitcase. I packed this like raffia tote bag style, but the resort that we did stay at gave us tote bags to walk around the resort in. So, that was actually a really nice touch. So, I didn't really have to bring my own beach bag, which again, maybe double-check to see if you're going to get one cuz that could save you a lot of room in your suitcase.

Now, one thing that you should bring on vacation is a small pouch where you can keep your room key, maybe your cell phone, and maybe some cash for tips in one place instead of fumbling around your beach bag. Everything is all in one manageable place, so it's very easy to find.

I packed a Lululemon belt bag that I kept all of that kind of important stuff in, and I put that in my beach bag. So, it was very easy for me to find everything that I was looking for. Otherwise, everything would kind of be like spread all over the place. So, it really helpful tip. A small pouch, a small little clutch, something small that you can put everything in one place.

And for the evening, I would recommend bringing like an evening style clutch bag. Of course, with all inclusive vacation, the best thing is the food is all included, so you don't have to bring a credit card, an ID. All you need to bring is basically your room key, but you have to put it somewhere. So, a small clutch bag doesn't have to be big.

Put your lip gloss or just some small things that you might want to have outside of your room when you're walking around the resort at night. Now, for accessories, for jewelry, I like to pack some vacation like jewelry pieces. I love these flower earrings. I think they're just really pretty and fun, and they're vacation-like as well as a lot of seashell jewelry.

I love a seashell necklace or seashell earrings, something just super fun, simple. Don't have to overpack it. And maybe leave your valuable jewelry at home. You don't have to worry about losing it or just keeping an eye on it. Of course, some sunglasses are a must for any resort vacation, and I would recommend bringing some polarized glasses.

That just helps the sun reflection with like the glare of the ocean or the pool. It helps minimize that so you can actually see better when it's really sunny out. And let me tell you guys, the sun on all-inclusive vacation, if you're going to Cancun, you're going to the Caribbean, it is hot.

So, I would definitely recommend to bring your favorite pair of sunnies along with a sun hat. This is where I made my mistake on my packing trip. I brought this beautiful sun hat. I love this style. Now, the only thing about it was it was very windy, and when I wanted to wear this, it was about to fly off. So, I really couldn't wear this at the pool.

So, I didn't get too much wear out of it. I wore it for like some pictures, but that was pretty much it. If it had a chin strap, it would be better. But if I wanted to lay down, it's kind of far in the back. So, while this is a gorgeous hat, which I love, it's gorgeous, I wish I would have brought my visor instead. This one's from Amazon.

It's a packable visor. You can easily roll this one up. You can pop it on your head really easily. It's going to provide you that shade, and this one is actually a wider brim, and it's flat in the back. So, you can easily lay on a pool chair with no problem. Just keep in mind with visors, your top head is still open, so you don't want to get sunburnt along your scalp.

So, maybe I wish they had dry shampoo with like SPF in it. That would be incredible. I just get really sunburnt on my scalp, so if they have a scalp sunburn thing, let me know in the comments down below. But I do love a sun hat or pack like a moisture-wicking baseball hat. That would do the trick as well.

And because it was so windy, I did pack these cute little pearl hair clips. I just kept my hair clipped up like this. It kept my hair out of my face. The wind didn't bother me, and it was just a fun touch. I was even in the elevator going back to my room, and everyone was like, "I love your hair clips." I was like, "Thank you." So, definitely a fun compliment-getter, and these are so inexpensive.

Under $10 for a pack of four on Amazon, and I will leave all of these items linked down below in the description box for you. Now, let's talk about some shoes on vacation. Number one is a water-resistant flip-flop. So, I love my little Havaianas, something that you can wear around the resort, get wet, get sandy, and not have to worry about it.

So, I like a classic flip-flop style, and they are extremely slim, so they pack in your suitcase really flat, which I love. I also packed these thicker sandals. These were also really affordable on Amazon. I think they're around like $20, and I love this fabric right here. They're very easy to walk in, and they have arch support.
So, I thought these were stylish and fun, and they're very easy and comfortable to walk around in. And if you plan on working out, be sure to bring your workout sneakers. I usually wear them on the plane just because they do take up a lot of room. If you plan on working out, I would definitely pack a pair of those.
And then for evening shoes, like I mentioned, a casual sort of sandal. Doesn't have to be a heel. In fact, I would recommend not packing a heel unless you are going to like a party situation, but really there is no need. I think vacation's all about being comfortable and what makes you feel comfy.
So, even these shoes would be fine for dinner depending on what I'm wearing. I packed these sandals. They have a little bit of like a metallic detail right here, and they're just a bit dressier. They're flat, and they go with all of my outfits for the evening time. So, these were really comfortable, and again, these are from Amazon as well.
Now, here are some toiletry extras to pack on your trip. Now, while you're going to an all-inclusive, they usually have everything covered for you. Ours even had a small bug spray, which I really loved. They had like a Colgate toothpaste. They have toothbrushes. They had shower caps, and basically a lot of things that you're going to use.
Some things that you should pack on your own even though you're going to an all-inclusive is sunscreen. I would pack one like for your face and then one for your body. I actually love the Trader Joe's body sunscreen. It doesn't have a white cast, and it goes on nice. It's not greasy, and that's my favorite body sunscreen.
And then for my face, I have a few favorites, but I like to pack different ones just because the face is a bit more concentrated. You don't want to get sunburnt. I even got a little bit of a tan line, as you can see. I just got back, so the sun is very strong. Sometimes resorts do offer like sunscreen in like little pumps, but the one that I was at didn't have that.
So, I'm glad that we did bring our own. If you also want to keep your hands mess-free, they also have like sunscreen sticks that you could use so your hands don't get all greasy and gross. But I like my one from Trader Joe's. That one has held me up for a while. Now, one thing that I wish I would have brought was like a deep conditioner for my hair, even like a leave-in conditioner spray.
I don't know if it's like the water in Cancun or it was the fact that I was just outside in the sun all day, but my hair felt extremely, extremely dry. And even though I was only there for like four days, I really did wish I had some sort of extra moisture for my ends. They just were like extremely dry.
So, even like a leave-in conditioner mask, a hair mask, or maybe like a hair oil, I wish I would have brought that because my hair was fried. Another fun thing that I did pack is this hair crimper. That was just adding in those like natural beachy waves without it being natural. So, if you want that like vacation hairstyle, I thought this crimper was really fun.
Not completely necessary, but if you want that beachy wave girl vibe, this was a fun thing to pack. If you do get a little red on vacation, some after-sun lotion will help you out, especially if you plan on being in the sun all day, which why you're on vacation, I feel like. It just calms your skin after a long day of being in the sun.
Now, if you plan on going away on an excursion, one, I would pack some excursion clothes, maybe a closed-toe shoe depending on what you're going to be doing, or if there's like a snorkel trip, just bringing in all of your extra things that you're going to need for a day outside of the resort. But if you're doing like a boat thing, maybe some motion sickness tablets if you get a little seasick, or if you feel like you're going to get a little bit of sickness from the food, maybe some like digestive pills to help you out. I know for me, I ate way more than I usually do just because it was like full meals for breakfast, lunch, and dinner, but I didn't get sick at all. So, I didn't feel gross, but just in case if you have a sensitive stomach or know you might get a little bit sick, I would maybe bring some pills for that just in case.

And if you plan on having a few drinks, okay, we're at an all-inclusive, I would bring some Blowfish tablets. These are my favorite. If I have a hangover, I love Blowfish. They help me out so much. I literally feel so much better in like 30 minutes. So, these are key for hangovers. Now, the great news is I didn't have to take any on our trip.
I'm really happy that I didn't have too much fun, and I didn't have to take any, but I did bring some just in case. And for the girls who want to wear a little bit of makeup on vacation, a makeup setting spray. I used the Charlotte Tilbury makeup setting spray, and it locked in my makeup for the entire day.
So, I was out in the sun. I was in the pool. I was at lunch, and when I went back for the room for dinner, I actually didn't even have to redo my makeup. I just added maybe a bit more mascara, and that was it. So, it helped me like get ready faster just because I wanted to be in the sun all day long, and that makeup setting spray really helped out.
Now, the fun part. If you want to know about some fun extra random bits of things that you should pack for your all-inclusive vacation, I would consider packing these insulated cups for drinks by the pool. This is one of the last things that we packed for the trip. We weren't really sure if we should bring them or not.
It's not totally necessary, but I'm really actually happy we did pack them because we were drinking wine by the pool, and we just poured the wine in our cups, and the wine stayed chilled for much longer than the plastic cups that they bring you the wine in, and it makes your drink just feel fresher rather than like having to drink so fast cuz it's going to melt or it's just not going to taste good when it gets too warm.
These cups really helped the drinks stay crisp and fabulous, and I think it helps us not drink too much because we were enjoying the drink cuz it actually stayed cold for much longer than it would have in those like plastic cups. So, if you're on the fence, I would bring it, especially if you like a good crisp cold cocktail.
These really came in handy. Now, the next thing, we actually didn't pack these. Someone actually gave these to us. These are the pool floaties, and I would consider maybe asking the resort like, "Hey, is this okay if we bring them?" I just feel like the resort might say something down the line, but nonetheless, they didn't care that we used them, but these were like so fun to float around the pool in. There's something about just having a floating experience in a pool with a cocktail. Like literally, I don't have to move and it was so fun to float around and you can actually just blow them up when you get there. So, they pack flat, you blow them up and you float away. It's amazing. So, if you want to have like the ultimate ultimate getaway, consider these pool floaties.
They're a little extra, but everyone was like, "Where did you get those?" So, definitely a conversation starter at the pool. You also might want to consider packing a clothing steamer. Now, the resort that we were at actually had a clothing steamer and iron, so not necessary. So, maybe that's one of the things that you should double check, but we brought ours and we kind of wasted room in our suitcase by bringing that.
So, maybe it's one of those things you don't have to bring. If you are a sensitive sleeper, maybe consider bringing some ear plugs, eye mask or maybe a noise machine. Our room was actually situated in the most quiet place of the resort, but depending on what resort you're staying at, you might be above some louder entertainment.
So, if you are in that room and you can't sleep well, maybe change room. Maybe ask them. But, our room was very quiet, so we didn't need them, but something to consider if you are a sensitive sleeper. Next up are the towel chair clips. Again, a great way to kind of mark your chairs.
I know it's just so annoying when people grab their chairs at like 6:00 a.m. That's a little early, I must say. But, our resort people were kind of doing that, so we went down around like 8:00 a.m. kind of and like, "Okay, what chair do you want?" And they always said like, "Leave something on the chair that you don't really care about.
" So, those chair clips do help kind of signal that your chair is taken. I don't know about this whole rule. This is a hot topic for sure. Let's sound it off in the comments. we deal with the chair situation at resorts? If you don't go down there early, you will not have a chair. So, what do you do? But, if you want to hold your chair or if you want to go hold your chair when you go to lunch or breakfast, I brought some things like an extra swimsuit cover up just to leave the chair looking like it was being used. And be sure to bring your own self activities. What do you want to do on vacation? Do you want to read a book? Bring your book or Kindle. Do you want to write things down? I love a notebook and a pen. So overlooked. A notebook and a pen for some ideas, some to-do list. I love it. Or if you like games like Sudoku, just bring something that you want to be entertained with.

Or you could just look at the ocean and just stare at it, you know? You could do that, too. So, whatever you want to do on vacation, make sure you bring it along with you. And last thing, a great pair of pajamas. I think that makes the vacation feel like a vacation. They're going to have hotel robes, but if you bring your favorite pair of pajamas, like it just feels so luxurious.
And when you wear them back at home, you can remember all about your vacation. All right, so there goes some things that you should pack for an all-inclusive vacation. If you thought this video was helpful, be sure to give it a thumbs up. It helps me out so much. Let me know down below if you're headed on an all-inclusive vacation, where you're going, and leave your hot take about reserving chairs in the comment box.
With that, I hope you guys have a super awesome rest of the day. Thank you so much for watching and thanks to Cupshe for partnering with me on today's video. I will see you all in the next one.
[Music]

6.foreign [Music] how are you welcome back to my channel for just a fun summertime video I did this last year honestly expected it to flop because I kind of just wanted to do it for me and weirdly it did not flop at all so I was like maybe we do it again this year and that is a cheap swimsuit haul I went ahead and bought them from the same place as the video was last year and that's cup sheet because I had quite a few successes and my reasoning last year is swimsuits are so expensive and they're such small amounts of fabric like it just like I I don't know why I can't fathom it at all all of these the set combined they are all under thirty dollars for the top and the bottom combined and I do not intend to keep all of these what we're going to do is I'm going to try them on I'm gonna rate them out of 10 and then I'm gonna just probably keep a couple for my upcoming Beach trips and return the rest I am selfishly glad I am doing this again because I went through kind of like a body positivity Journey this last year and have put on a good amount of weight since last summer which I'm very proud of and so a lot of those swimsuits don't even fit me anymore so I need a couple new ones that fit my 2023 body so that's enough Chit Chat I'm gonna open all these up and see which tops go with which bottoms and then we will look at them and try them on rate them rinse and repeat [Music] okay I did notice weirdly they have different kind of like collections I guess like Dreamscapes is one of them or with Vanessa midnight I ended up getting a lot from The Collection called Italian Voyage most of the things I got are high-waisted I'm just a high-waisted girl this looks cute because it is like a scoop neck although this does not look like a lot of fabric between here and here so we'll see how that fits everything I ordered was in a size small so we'll see how consistent all these sizes are but we're gonna start with this one this like cute high-waisted this gives retro to me and it sounds just precious and I'll link these down below in order of appearance so that way it just makes it easier to find which one's which let's get started with this one okay swimsuit number one I love the vibe of this I'm really beginning like nautical sailboat deep whatever and to me this gives vintage sailboat Vibes minus a point for the top because there's no way to adjust it there's no adjustable straps or hook on the back at all so you kind of just have to look into it fitting you the bottoms I do wish they were slightly higher waisted like really lean into the Vintage this is like a mid high waist um so I wish it was maybe like one inch higher because I do think that that would make it a little more vintagey and a little more flattering to really hit like the natural waist and the back has enough coverage I would prefer a little bit more but enough so all in all I think I'm gonna give this one an eight out of ten and depending on how it Stacks up I'm pretty sure for me it's going to be a

keep but we'll see I got two different black ribbed swimsuit options because I feel like black ribbed is just so Chic especially when you like you know layer jewelry and it's not really like a swimming but more of like a lounging look you know this one has an interesting cut out underneath but it's like a little peephole and are these these might be one of the only not high-waisted bottoms I think let's see let's see if this one can win me over but I'm gonna I'm gonna bet based off personal preference that this is not gonna be one of my favorites trying it out with an open mind okay I feel very exposed in these types of bottoms I knew that I would feel that way I think it's a cute concept of a swimsuit with a little cutout detail is fun but um for me I hate it I will say plus one point for the straps being adjustable but there's no clasp in the back of this one at all this is going to be a return for me obviously the material is a little thinner than the last one I wouldn't quite say it like feels like it's going to hold up quite as well and the straps aren't super supportive I'm gonna give it a 6 out of ten let it return for me like I feel like I have to like hold my arms here to feel comfortable okay the only patterned one we're trying on today this is one of the Vanessa ones this is a cute high-waisted floral swimsuit that has like a cutout detail only on one side which I thought was cool asymmetrical and then it has kind of like a tie Top This does look like more fabric on the top which I do think I'll like and it has like a crisscross back so there's some fun details about this I will say there was one one swimsuit that did not come in I did not realize it was a pre-order and it was the only other patterned one I got how do I let's see if I can find a way to open this up on the website it's like a vintage red tone floral swimsuit it's also high-waisted but it's ruched which is always so flattering and kind of like a v-neck with a lot of coverage to me this one looks very anthropology hopefully this one comes in before my Hawaii trip but we will see for now let's try on this one okay this one I feel super comfortable in the material of this feels really nice and thick the couple little detailed cutouts here are fun flirty but I still feel like very covered I don't feel like anything is going to slip out like I wouldn't have to readjust anything at all this tie can also I don't know if it can fully be removed or if it can just be untied but I feel like if you wanted even a little bit more coverage yeah okay so you could pull it like this and if you wanted to cut that tie from the inside you totally could and have just more of a scoop neck kind of top but I do like the tie I feel like it adds a little something I also think this light blue helps look a little more tan you know what I mean lighter colors do have like a nice amount of contrast these straps are very thick and very nice and do adjust in the back but there is no they've taken away a lot of the clasps this year which is interesting and also so far for the first three I feel like sizing is consistent I feel like all these Smalls are fitting similarly which is great I think all of these you can order a different size top versus bottom either you order them separately or if they come as a set you could specify which I do really appreciate because sometimes looking at Styles I do want to like size up on the bottoms or whatever that might be but this one I honestly might even like it more than the first it is more high-waisted just ever so slightly I feel like it might be half an inch higher I would give this one a nine out of 10. and I think it might be a keep I just feel comfortable and that's really at the end of the day what matters the most this one's gonna be interesting to see how I get it on because it's supposed to like crisscross tie around your waist a couple times I'm gonna just zoom into that picture we'll see if I can figure out how to how to get that on but you have that and then yet again another scoop neck top it kind of seems like the same cut as one of the early swimsuits so we'll see how the coverage does but I do think it's a fun bright color I normally don't go for bright colors I'm a very beige girl as you can tell by me and my surroundings but I'm trying to push my comfort zone a little bit and go with a couple more fun bright things for summer and see how I like it okay I do think that this one is fun and different with this little tie that you tie above the waist I will say I want to tighten these straps so bad I have a short torso and so I normally like to tighten the straps also just for more support and this is another one with no way to adjust anything and it's funny because I feel like the first one I tried on bit a little bit tighter than this one it has a very similar cut I don't dislike it I'm kind of a little bit torn honestly as to like if I would like it enough to wear it and keep it or if it's just like a little too far outside my comfort zone basically I'm torn I think I'd give this one a seven so you know it's passing it's passing but it's not a star student my thoughts are a little inconclusive on this one this one I'm excited about because it's color blocked and it's ribbed those are two things I like and it's like kind of more muted colors you know a navy and a kind of sky blue I thought yet again it was it was giving a little vintage and this looks like it has great coverage this looks like kind of a sports bra top which that's just what I feel most comfortable in I don't want to be like adjusting all day and worried about it let's see the back of this isn't a ton of fabric I do have high hopes for the top of this one at least I am surprised at how much I love the way this one feels this one feels so nice so different from the rest honestly and this gives me a good perspective on the last swimsuit I think that the way that this feels is so much better so the last probably will be a return let me explain what's different the ribbed material of this is so much more supportive like I feel held in I feel supported it just feels really really nice stretchy but like I have no other word besides support it at all this top I feel just so comfortable I feel like I could actually like literally go to the gym and work out in this it feels sports bra adjacent and the straps are adjustable so I was able to tighten them for a little extra support as well my only wish is yet again that this was like because this is vintage Vibes I feel like it would be even better if it was just here you see what I mean like I would feel more covered I would feel just like cuter because it would be hitting more of my natural waist and I do think it would play into the Vintage quite a bit instead of where it does hit which is slightly below my belly button it's retro it's fun I'm so comfortable keep keep 9.

5 not quite a 10 but 9.5 one more ribbed this is the other black one that I got and this one looks incredibly modest which I'm so excited about this is another one from that uh what is it called Italian Voyage or Voyage however you want to say it and I'm really hopeful that I will feel good in this one because look at look at that amount of fabric it's almost like a crop top instead of just a tiny bikini top and yet again just plain black high-waisted bottoms I am feeling confident that I will like this one and feel comfortable in it but we don't know until we try so let's try okay I love the concept of this one I'm a little torn on the fit of the top because it is a little loose to where I just wish it was a bit more fitted and would read more as like you know a crop top something about this feels a little uncomfortable like it's not quite supportive enough but I do really like it and I feel like it's a good swimsuit for the days and I'm just like not really feeling like wearing something really small and you know showing it all
to the world black is a flattering color and then this has the most coverage out of anything so I am really tempted to keep it for the days that I'm just you know wanting to go swim without wearing a little teeny bikini so I would give this a 7.5 I like it better than that other seven and I do think it's just like it's simple it's nice I feel like I've seen this kind of cut trending a little bit more and it does look cute with jewelry I will say imagine this with a couple additional layered necklaces and the last one is also the Italian Voyage collection this is so cute because it almost kind of has like an asymmetrical color block scoop neck we'll see but I love those two colors together and then the bottoms are just simple like this but I thought that that was yet again a fun little color palette color blocking is just I'm into it I think it's fun for swimsuits and for summer so I'm hopeful I'm hopeful that this is going to be another one that I like and will want to keep because the whole set was 24.
99 one that has the hooks in the back but not adjustable straps and as you can see like I would like to pull this a little bit tighter and adjust that strap a bit it feels just a little loose to me but it is nice that I could kind of increase the bottom support by tightening that the bottoms I love I think that they're a really great you know length and amount of coverage for me and I do like this like asymmetrical kind of pattern so I don't know what I would rate this I think for me it might be a return just because I had some others that fit better and that I didn't feel like I needed to adjust but I love the concept of this one like I think the the cut and the style is very very cute I think I'm going to give it a 6.5 but probably do it as a return so looking back everything that was a 7.5 and above I'm keeping and everything that was a seven and below I am returning which I think is pretty good so that gives me one two three four that gives me four keeps four swimsuit so that's a pretty good deal and we'll see if you're part of my Vlog fam if that last swimsuit comes in anytime soon I will I will unbox it in the Vlogs because I'm really really hopeful for that one I'm looking at them all laid out and I totally had a color palette there's two black two green and three like navy blue combinations which is really funny but thanks for letting me do just like a fun light-hearted video and prepare for some upcoming travel to um some tropical places which will be really fun like I said I'm gonna link these in order that we tried them on so that hopefully it'll just help because it's hard to describe like the two black red ones versus each other this is just a good old time so thanks for being here I love you very much I hope you have the best rest of your day and I will see you in another video very soon all right if we're looking for each other [Music] [Music]

7.foreign [Music] [Music] what's up it's your girl danny dmc welcome to my channel welcome back if you are part of the confidence crew we are kickstarting 2020 in true danny dmc fashion full of confidence if you guys saw my last video i'm so grateful for all the outpour of love that i received it was so it's always so comforting to know you're not alone and i think that's what's super dope about this community is that was my purpose in creating this family for us is that we all feel like we have someone and even if it's not me you've met someone through the community through the facebook group i know so many people have met with the confidence movement facebook group if you're new here i really really implore you to check out all of the info in the description box below on ways that you can get involved in the confidence crew and in the community so you don't feel alone and make sure you subscribe to this channel hit that big juicy red button screaming subscribe at you below you are going to want to be a part of the confidence crew
but i want you to be confident that decision so wait watch this entire video and i guarantee by the end of it you'll be running to hit that subscribe button today you are in for a treat i'm back to my danny dmc ways and one of my number one ways that i've always tried to show confidence not only on camera but off camera in public is through bikinis and swimwear i personally love bikinis i was told at a young age that i shouldn't be wearing bikinis because i had a belly and i had cellulite and i should cover up and me being the true rebel that i am was like uh-uh i'm not going to do that so one of my favorite videos to bring you guys are bikini hauls because if i can show you that i can rock it hopefully it gives you the confidence to rock it so today i've partnered with cup sheet and i'm a big fan of cup sheet if you're a loyal subscriber here you've seen many cupsheet videos before i really like them because they have tons of different styles for all different body types and i'm going to show you guys that today you will see i'm trying on many different styles of bikinis bikinis full bathing suits tankinis like they literally have everything and their whole shop is set up to mix and match so you can buy tops and bottoms separate so if you're different sizes which i usually am up top and on the bottom you can purchase those sizes accordingly so i'm very grateful for that because i hate when you have to buy a bathing suit together and the sizing is just usually it's huge on my boobs and fits my bottom perfect so i'm super excited to show you guys these bikinis i'm in the tropics so we will have a beautiful view that a lot of you have seen before and also you know i never leave you empty-handed we have a code danny15 for 15 off for purchases over 65 so definitely check out cupchi every single bathing suit i try on will be in the description box below with my sizing as well i think all the bathing suits i'm going to try on are either a double x or a 1x they've also expanded their plus size so much which i'm really excited about so let's get into these bikinis and bathing suits baby and pick up that confidence i know where a lot of you are it is still cold it's actually chilly here this morning as well but i just want this to serve as a reminder to really love yourself show off your body and be a rebel to society you do not need to fit in it is not about fitting in you've been lied to it's about standing out and i hope this video gets you ready for 2022 pumps you up the way it pumps me up and gives you all that confident energy that you need let's get into it okay first up kicking it off with this super cute floral print flirty bikini i love this tube top the pattern on this is amazing i love the colors as well it fits super well i'm able to show off my body i really really love the style of this top i also love that you can take the straps off if you want to also helps with tan lines if you're into that these bottoms are such a good fit honestly my dream bottom they give me coverage and they hold me in but they also let me show off some skin you know what i'm saying and they are cheeky but they don't cover too much i love this bikini

so much it's super comfortable and definitely a good bathing suit for style but also for comfort and if you're doing any type of like water sports it's not going to move at all and it just makes me feel really confident and bold i love it okay now you know your girl loves a good bikini but i have to throw something in there for my girls that want to be more comfortable and aren't fully ready for a bikini and this tankini is the perfect option i love the ties in the back as you can see i'm showing you right now it's super adjustable and i just think this is a great starter bikini or tankini if you guys are trying to get comfortable with the whole bikini vibe it has a peplum top it's giving me japanese cherry blossom vibes it's super beautiful very full coverage on the bottoms and on top i love that there's cups in the top and like i said it's adjustable so it's good for small chest or big chest and i just feel like it's super comfortable lets you show off your body but you still you know you get a little sneak peek and it gets you comfortable
maybe ready for the next level as you can see these bottoms are full coverage youtube let me live this is just a great option overall okay let's get into this coral moment i love this bikini first off this top is everything i love how it's ribbed i love the details and this is a really nice bikini because it's not my typical barely there situation it's definitely more full coverage i love the belt that it has on it and how it matches the top perfectly with the rings and this is just a great bikini i feel like it's a really good option especially if you want to be a bit more covered up but you still want a bikini this is her baby she is it i also love the coral color and i think that it will look good on a lot of different skin tones okay next up we are coming in hot with this black number you can never go wrong with a black bikini okay listen to me ladies this top is everything you see the mesh i love the details the cuts the way that this top is shaped is actually amazing and i'm so obsessed with it and i'm equally obsessed with the bottoms they're kind of like a barely there situation but also give you full coverage but let your fupa free at the same time which is really important for me and i really stand by that statement this bathing suit is it it just really is i feel like we all need a black bikini in our closet just like that black little dress it just makes you feel sexy and bold and confident even though it's not this super vibrant color it just i don't know it does something for the soul and i feel like everything about this bikini is cut really nice and you get the coverage but it is more of a risk but you know i want us all to take risks and get out of our comfort zones and baby you can't deny this bikini she is hot okay hot fire i'm quite literally obsessed next up we have this beautiful orange bikini i love this bikini so much the material is insane it's kind of like a bandage material like a bandage dress kind of and i love the details on the top and i love how it matches on the bottoms the straps are super adjustable and they're a bit thicker than your ordinary top which i really like now i will say this is from the plus size section and this is a 1x and the bottoms are big on me which makes me happy and you're probably like why does that make you happy but that means cup she's sizing is on point and that means a lot of people can fit their bathing suits which makes me really happy because this is a bikini a lot of people need she is straight fire i love the color i feel like it just pops and is super super vibrant i prefer this over the coral i think just because it makes you pop a little more and it literally would look phenomenal on anyone this bikini is just it i'm living for her she is a moment next up this is a rarity for danny dmc ladies and gentlemen but yes i do have on a one-piece bathing suit as you can see i'm showing you right off the bat i do not like one-piece bathing suits when they sit low on your hips you gotta pull them high to give you that v effect and that's exactly what i do with my bikini bottoms as well so why would i not do it with a one piece i love this little cutout i feel like because this is a one piece i do want some type of skin showing so i like that they added the cutout i really like the shape of this the neckline there's ruching in the center which is really nice and it just fits the body great again you can't go wrong with black the bottoms in the back are full coverage but cheeky at the same time which i like and then if you adjust the bathing suit how i do it fits perfectly and kind of gives you that lifting effect on your butt which i am a big fan of i love this bathing suit and this is definitely a danny dmc approved one piece which you don't really see or hear about these days okay and this is just a needed one piece if that is what you were looking for she is it okay if you can't tell from the huge smile on my face i've clearly saved the best for last i am obsessed with this bathing suit i love the blue it is so vibrant i feel like it is popping off the screen i love the top i love how it's long sleeve it's mesh and i love little tie in the front i will say there is no cup support at all i really think that you should get a white top a white bikini top and put it under this mesh top but these bottoms are phenomenal they fit so good i could wear them every day of my life and they are a thong in the back baby let me tell you which you know your girl enjoys this is a danny dmc bathing suit if i ever seen one if you put a white bikini top under this i would be good to go and i would definitely rock this to a pool party to go to the beach honestly really to go anywhere because i love that you have a bit of style and fashion with the top but then you also have a bikini that fits really really good with the bottoms and i know i could get a balm white bikini top from cup sheet to go perfectly with this i love how the bottom sit up high like oh look how they sit on my waist i'm obsessed i could not ask for more i love that there's like waves in the top and this is just a look i'm ending on a banger like i always do shout out to cups you guys are doing the damn thing and i'm your number one fan literally okay you guys that is our video i really hope you saw a bikini that stood out to you or the confidence stood out to you baby and you are picking up that energy i love you guys i rock with you hit that subscribe button join the confidence crew i'm telling you it will be one of the best decisions you make of 2022 and check out the description box below for other resources on how to get involved in the confidence crew check out my workshop my workbook as well as all of these dope bathing suits like i said my sizing will be below i have a code danny15 for 15 off all of these dope bathing suits on cupchi's website when you make a purchase over 65 so shout out to cupsheet for sponsoring this video i love you guys i rock with you and you will see many more cupchief videos throughout the year because i'm doing bikini confidence all the time that's what i'm known for and we're keeping it going baby we are not stopping in 2022 and if i can help one person that's all that matters if i can boost someone's confidence and make them feel better about themselves and know that they can be a rebel to society and go out into the world and just be them and be free and let their body be free i've done my job i'm so grateful for you guys i'll see you way sooner than you think danny dmc is going up this year okay and until then go out be confident be bold and i'll see you soon bye

8. If it's one thing I'm gonna do every single summer, it is get, like,

10 new bikinis when I say this is on the top of my list.

As far as favorites, this one's with cup. She, um.

It's got this, like,

snatching corset in the back.

Make it as tight as you freaking want.

Look. Look how snatched right now.

Like, ribcage wear. Um, they're super affordable, too.

And this comes in other colors, like,

don't be crazy. Get it for summer.

9.00:00:00 --> 00:00:02
this is one of Cupshe’s number one selling swimsuits
00:00:02 --> 00:00:03
and I'm understanding why 00:00:03 --> 00:00:05
because this pattern alone is beautiful 00:00:05 --> 00:00:07
there's 12 other colours to choose from 00:00:07 --> 00:00:08
but I'm obsessed with this one 00:00:08 --> 00:00:09
it's got like 00:00:09 --> 00:00:10
hidden support right here 00:00:10 --> 00:00:12
and there's something going on right here that kinda like 00:00:12 --> 00:00:13
pushes everything forward 00:00:13 --> 00:00:15
it's super flattering with the criss cross too 00:00:15 --> 00:00:17
and it's got adjustable strap 00:00:17 --> 00:00:19
and then it's super stretchy back here too
00:00:19 --> 00:00:22
I love that I could pull it up over my belly button and then the back of it 00:00:22 --> 00:00:23
like it's not too cheeky 00:00:23 --> 00:00:24
it covers pretty much everything
00:00:25 --> 00:00:26
I wish I can express to you guys like 00:00:26 --> 00:00:28
how comfortable I truly am 00:00:28 --> 00:00:29
like it's seriously so comfy 00:00:29 --> 00:00:30
so it's linked below that 00:00:30 --> 00:00:32
like I said 12 other colours to choose from 00:00:32 --> 00:00:33
if you love it get one 9.Up she is my most favorite place to find somewhere.

Now, can we please talk about this bikini?

I love my high waisted bikini bottoms.

Completely wedgie proof.

Do I look like my grandmother's furniture, perhaps?

Or her wallpaper, perhaps?

That's why I absolutely love this print.

And I was worried

because of the cheekiness,

if it was going to be wedgie proof,

but it is. She's not being eaten by the booty.

These bottoms are a dream come true.

We're gonna just try it on on camera,

but you guys are gonna see the struggles of me

actually trying to get something up over my hips.

It's nearly impossible. Ah,

this is actually super cute.

I really like it.

This is something that I would use as a breakfast dress, and you don't have to think about putting together an outfit,

but you're still cute and sort of put together.

Let's move on.

I'm always on the hunt for unique things,

things that are just not like a basic white tea.

And sometimes it's okay, but, like,

I'm just obsessed, obsessed,

obsessed, obsessed,

obsessed, obsessed.

I always feel like filming

fall stuff when it's hot as hell outside is always the hardest thing.

We are probably gonna overheat in about 2.2 seconds.

I'm not a beige person,

but I really love the piping of the white.

And as always,

I would probably tuck this in just to give me a little bit more shape.

Has this amazing fringe,

which I just think makes the sweater

a little bit better than just a basic beige sweater.

I feel like I have my mother's bathrobe on.

So let me just throw on some shoes real quick to see if I can just look at this dress a little differently.

I just really love these puff sleeves

because you can take it off the shoulder, and I definitely plan on wearing this during the holidays.

I know it's soon.

I know, I know,

I know. Don't come for me.

But when I saw it,

I was like, oh,

we can plan ahead.

Perfect. So we are going to slowly,

slowly transition from somewhere to fall clothing

over the next few weeks.

But we're not gonna jump in head first because we're not ready for it yet.

It's still 85 degrees, and I'm sweating in my apartment right now because I had to turn the ACS off to film this video. Bye.

10. I'm a midsize girl that's on a mission to find some swimwear that I'm gonna feel comfortable in cause we swimwear sometimes it can dig in all the wrong places

so we're gonna give cupshe a go

I'm gonna save this one to last because I like the ruching

it's got pads in and that back detailing cute

shall be brave and start with a bikini

how nice is that cut

nothing is tight

it's all just fitting really nice and nothing really tight here either

let's try another bikini ps

these all come in these bags

which I think are great for taking on holiday

next up is this colour

same sort of fit on the bottoms

prefer this top

and it's all adjustable as well

see what I mean

you can move all of that this is such a pretty colour

I really like this one

I don't know what it is about this

This little bit too

this is my summer body

because everybody is a summer body

while I've got this on

I'm gonna try on a cover up

I've tied them on opposite sides

so to even them out a bit

you can still see my bikini through it which I love

it's still gonna be nice and cool and look beautiful

next is this little mocha number

I do love this

you're coming on holiday with me

I've been pretty happy so far so is this actually gonna be saving the best till last I was right

let me show you

it's this ruching for me

if you're a mid size girl

there's got a bit of a lower tum and you want to hide it

this is the one for you

11.This is for the ladies who are blessed in the chest.

I have found our bathing suit of the summer.

This is from cup

she and I was a little skeptical at first because of sizing.

However, this thing fits like a glove.

I'm wearing size extra large.

I am a size 32 H,

and this bathing suit is so flattering.

It is so supportive.

You have a full coverage in the back.

Plus this waist tie here snatches you in thick adjustable straps and removable padding.

What else do you need?

So if you are shaped like me at all,

do yourself a favor and buy this one piece swimsuit from cupshe

12.This one is so cute covered here.

The color is just adorable.

Cover here also lifts a little bit.

Issue with high waisted bathing suits is that,

you know, I need mom coverage and areas,

but then I also don't want it like,

those are here and then around the hair, and it's just frumpy, you know? I'm saying, the other hand,

you can find something that I like high, high,

like, cut, and you're like,

maybe back in the day,

but, like, a knee a little bit more than that now.

So this one's perfect.

It shows enough,

like, right here,

but it's still appropriate.

And then you can pair it with this adorable cover up.

So this one's a medium, so I could get a little bit longer.

So comfy.

It's like a knit material,

but it's not like a stiff,

heavy one. It's super soft,

super breathable,

super light, can twirl in it,

can do whatever you want.

When you're at the beach and, you know your kid needs, like,

the fifth drink of the day and you, like,

don't wanna walk out there and flip flops and just your bathing suit,

this is perfect for that.

13. Are you ready to slay at the beach or pool?

If you're feeling bloated or just not feeling yourself or feeling like getting in a bikini,

this is gonna be it for you.

This.

The compression on the belly here,

y'all, is.

Is like, legit.

I'm not. I'm not, like, sucking in anything at all.

This is. This is it.

I am wearing a size medium.

You might wanna size up one.

You've got nice thick straps here for support,

and then also adjustable straps.

There is the back so you have a nice.

A full coverage booty area.

And then I love this crisscross design here.

This is also adjustable.

You can never have too many bathing suits.

14.Cupshe just coming in all hot with the tummy control bathing suits

I didn't even realize they made these

I thought they were more so like the cute little bikinis same one I'm wearing

but in black and it has this like under lining layer that if you know shapewear

you know that this is just like sucking me in

and then in the back

it has like

a girdle feature

these types of bathing suits are normally so expensive

these are super sturdy thick straps they are adjustable

there are removable pads in here

no underwire but the way that this is built it

it feels very supportive

I am 5 £210 32 double d

and this is a size extra small

so it has a seamline coming up here

definitely tummy control and then I'll show you the back

see in the back there that these are adjustable and then it has like this corset to tighten it and just watch the magic who and you can just see that it is you can like really pull it together and have like a super tight

snatched waistline

phew okay

look at that it just pulls me in like crazy

I've heard people say

but then like

it's pinching in the bag

it's pinching the fat

but I don't know

I don't see it doing that the section scar definitely had hidden in this one

I don't ever have that little hourglass hip situation going on booty very impressed with this one

10 out of 10 holy smokes

I feel like really sucked in if this is what you're looking for

I will put a link here for you go check out the other colors

all right bye
